

FOOD AND DRINK TRIVIA QUIZ II

(www.TriviaChamp.com)

1> It's the greatest thing since sliced bread. When did a bakery produce the first pre-sliced, packaged loaf of bread?

2> Like Babe Ruth, you may be avoiding this food because it makes your urine smell like rotting cabbage. What is the food?

3> Whose liver will you be munching on when you spread pate de foie on a cracker?

4> What does an enthusiastic chef call the outer peel of a citrus fruit, such as a lemon?

5> The names of the cities of Frankfurt and Vienna gave us two different names for what product?

6> If you want to kill a werewolf with beer, what brewery's "Silver Bullet" should you use?

7> Apparently invented by Fernand Lachance at a restaurant called Le Lutin Qui Rit in Warwick, Quebec, what is poutine?

8> These cocktails are trading tales of their sexual exploits at a bar. Which one turns out to be a virgin?

- Shirley Temple
- Harvey Wallbanger
- Tom Collins
- Rob Roy

9> Schlitz is the beer that made what city famous?

10> What food gets its name, not because it was French for the food meant for Napoleon's horse, because it was supposed to make even the devil fart?

11> Which beer is named for a Czech town known for its beechwood aging, that was once home to the Holy Roman Empire's royal brewery?

12> What's called miantiao in China, ramen in Japan, ba mee in Thailand and pancit mami in the Philippines?

13> The Congress of Vienna divided up Europe, but it also crowned what product, first made by the Jouarre Abbey, the king of cheeses?

Answers:

1> 1928 - In 1928, a bakery in Chillicothe, Missouri, used Otto Rohwedder's invention for sliced bread.

2> Asparagus - It's a genetic thing and it affects nearly half of us, because this food has sulfurous chemicals related to the mercaptans that produce the stink in bad breath.

3> A goose's - This has become fairly controversial.

4> Zest - This is where the word 'zesty' comes from.

5> Hot dogs - The words are frankfurters and wieners.

6> Coors - The silver cans are used to distinguish Coors Light from the yellow bellied cans used for other brands.

7> French fries in gravy and cheese - A rival claim is from Le Roy Jucep restaurant in Drummondville.

8> Shirley Temple - It is made with grenadine and ginger ale, but no booze.

9> Milwaukee - Milwaukee, with its large German American population, attracted many brewers.

10> Pumpnickel - It is not from "pain pour Nicol", but from the Old German.

11> Budweiser - The world's best-selling beer has been a hit for Anheuser-Busch since 1890, and it now controls about half the American market.

12> Noodles - Noodles are a staple of Asian cuisine. It's where Italian pasta comes from.

13> Brie - Brie was named for a French region that is now the departement of Seine-et-Marne.

Links to Free Trivia on the Net

Movie Trivia

Movie Trivia Questions

Elvis Trivia Questions

Beatles Trivia Questions

