

HARD TRIVIA QUESTIONS VII

(www.TriviaChamp.com)

1> What would you do with a Tawleed?

- a. Ride it
- b. Eat it
- c. Wear it
- d. Play it

2> What hunchbacked Catholic poet and essayist never grew taller than 4 ft 6 in, due to a tubercular spinal infection?

- a. Evelyn Waugh
- b. Alexander Pope
- c. Graham Greene
- d. Oscar Wilde

3> The world's housecats rise up and form a country of their own. How many human countries will have a higher human population than the feline population of Catland?

- a. Ten
- b. Two
- c. Five
- d. Forty

4> Who counted among their victims Michael Bonnin, Samuel Todd Stapleton, Russell Nelson, Tim O' Rourke and Robert Piest?

- a. Jessie James
- b. Ted Bundy
- c. John Gacy
- d. Charles Manson

5> Zhongdian County in what country's Yunan Province renamed itself Shangri-La County in 2002?

- a. India
- b. China
- c. Japan
- d. Nepal

6> The Jeweler's Shop was a 1988 Burt Lancaster movie based on a play written by whom?

- a. Ronald Reagan
- b. Pope John Paul II
- c. William Shakespeare
- d. Carl Sagan

7> At a 1951 party in Mexico City, what writer decided to play William Tell with his wife, but instead of shooting a glass, fatally shot her in the head?

- a. Norman Mailer
- b. Jack Kerouac
- c. William S Burroughs
- d. Gore Vidal

8> What was the name of the Bee Gees' first studio album released in November 1965?

- a. High Civilization
- b. Cucumber Castle
- c. The Bee Gees Sing and Play 14 Barry Gibb Songs
- d. Life in a Tin Can

9> After designing the Sparrow and Hawk missile systems for the US military, Raytheon's Jack Ryan went on to mold what toy for Mattel?

- a. GI Joe
- b. Barbie
- c. Slinky
- d. Hot Wheels

10> Levator labii superioris alaeque nasi is the muscle with the longest name. Elvis gave his quite a workout. How?

- a. Digesting
- b. Dancing
- c. Sneering
- d. Singing

11> What Du Pont product has been used to describe the blame-evading qualities of Ronald Reagan and John Gotti?

- a. Nylon
- b. Teflon
- c. Borax
- d. Aspirin

12> What Egyptian god did Isis reassemble after Set tore him apart, all except for his penis, which a fish had eaten?

- a. Odin
- b. Osiris
- c. Quetzalcoatl
- d. Maeve

13> Which of these Islands is owned by the Philippines?

- a. Negros
- b. Bangka
- c. Graham
- d. Wrangle

14> What would you do with an Ajiaco?

- a. Play it
- b. Wear it
- c. Eat it
- d. Use it

15> Judi Dench appeared with her husband Michael Williams in which sitcom in the eighties?

- a. Fresh Fields
- b. A Fine Romance
- c. As Time Goes By
- d. Keeping Up Appearances

Answers:

- 1> Ride it - The Tawleed is a breed of horse native to the Sudan.
- 2> Alexander Pope - He was known as the Wicked Wasp of Twickenham.
- 3> Two - There would be 600 million Catlanders, outnumbering every country but China and India.
- 4> John Gacy - Gacy buried many of his victims in his basement.
- 5> China - The local Tibetans call it Gyalthang.
- 6> Pope John Paul II - He was known for his writing skills.
- 7> William S Burroughs - Although he managed to accidentally kill Joan Vollmer above the Bounty Bar, he served a minimum of jail time for it.
- 8> The Bee Gees Sing and Play 14 Barry Gibb Songs - The album was released only in Australia.
- 9> Barbie - Ryan was also infamous for throwing swinging playboy parties at his mansion, called The Castle.
- 10> Sneering - Attached to the maxilla, it runs along your nose and is used to curl the lip and inflame the nostril.
- 11> Teflon - On April 6, 1938, Roy Plunkett was looking for a non-toxic cooling gas. But the experiment went awry and he was left with a waxy, slippery material.
- 12> Osiris - Even so, he still managed to father Horus.
- 13> Negros - This island is the third largest island in the Philippines.
- 14> Eat it - Ajiaco is a soup, which comes from Colombia.
- 15> A Fine Romance - It was first broadcast on 8 November 1981 and it lasted for 26 episodes.